THE LEGEND OF GEMFIRE

CROWN GEMFIRE

Long, long ago there was a magical kingdom in the middle of the northern seas called Ishmeria. The people lived in peace on their island with elves and ogres and other fantastic beasts. But one fateful day an evil sorcerer named Zommel broke their harmony.

Zommel flew to Ishmeria on the back of a Fire Dragon. He wielded the dragon's powers against the people. In one day he covered the island with fire, destroying villages and scorching the hills. There was only one thing that stopped the dreadful fires. It was the Pastha, kind creature of the sea.

Hearing the cries of the poor people, the Pastha woke from its bed in the sea. Then it scooped up as much water as it could carry and flew to the towns, spraying water down on the flames. But the dragon could not be stopped. So, the king called his six wizards and sorceresses to lock the monster away. Together they worked their magic. Suddenly, as the last spell was cast, Zommel returned and cursed them all. Laughing as he escaped from Ishmeria, the magicians turned into 6 gems and fell in a ring around the dragon as it changed into a ruby.

In remembrance of the great powers that saved Ishmeria from destruction, the king inlaid all 7 gems in a crown called Gemfire. Soon the king discovered that the crown held special powers to help the people and he used it to restore Ishmeria to peace.

As the king grew older the people of his kingdom prospered. Then the day came for the king to hand the reigns of power over to his son. King Eselred became the new keeper of Gemfire and unfortunately he found a darker use for the crown.

King Eselred was greedy and misused the crown. With its powers he pillaged the people, destroyed their crops, and directed Ishmeria on a course of doom. Yet King Eselred had a daughter, Princess Robyn, who was kind and troubled by the pains her father forced upon the people. She dreamed that some day she would stop her father.

Then one night Princess Robyn peeked into the king's chambers and saw her father asleep on the throne with the crown in his hands. Robyn saw her chance to make her dreams come true. The gems sparkled in the moonlight as if they were calling her. Ever so quietly, she tiptoed up to the throne and grasped Gemfire in her hands.

"Forgive me for what I must now do..." As she softly spoke these words to the powers of the crown, Princess Robyn broke the spell. She worked the magical gems out of the crown and hurled them into the midnight sky. But, as she struggled with the very last stone, the red ruby of the dragon, her father startled her from behind!

"Robyn! You have betrayed my faith!" Blinded by his wrath and greed, King

Eselred banished Princess Robyn to a tower and locked her away from all.

But the spell had already been broken and the wizards and sorceresses turned back into their human forms. They disappeared into the night and sought out the other rulers in Ishmeria. Each vowed to use their magical powers for the good of the kingdom.

From that day, the kingdom was split and the fight was on to unite the crown. The people, the elves, and the ogres of the island could never live in peace until one virtuous leader gained control of Gemfire and all the gems. Six magicians and six rulers went to war to restore the kingdom under the crown.

Shooters

Shooters can defeat 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th Units. But the 5th Unit is a bit too tough for them.

Gunners

Gunners pelt the enemy with steel mortar. Just one blast and troops scatter!

⊗ MAGICIANS

The powers of the crown are in each of 6 gems. Each gem contains a wizard or sorceress! They have been loyal to different rulers throughout Ishmeria ever since Princess Robyn released them from the crown.

Note: After a magician fights a war they must rest for 2 months.

Skulryk

Gem: Opal

Wizard of the Molbrew Family

Skulryk has the powers of clouds. He blows a purple cloud of poisonous smoke. Anyone or anything trapped in the cloud will be paralyzed!

Chylla

Gem: Amethyst

Sorceress of the Chrysalis Family

Chylla has the powers of ice. Her spells are stronger than the coldest winter winds! She unleashes a deadly chill and freezes the enemy in crystals of ice.

Scylla

Gem: Topaz

Sorceress of the Flax Family

Scylla has the powers of the wind. With a wave of her wand she sets the winds free. No troops are safe in the face of Scylla's whirlwinds!

Empyron

Gem: Garnet

Wizard of the Coryll Family

Empyron has the powers of fire. He shoots jets of blue fire with a magic crystal. He grows more powerful each time he uses his powers.

Zendor

Gem: Emerald

Wizard of the Blanche Family

Zendor is the master of lightning. He commands the skies to fire down upon the earth. The blinding glare throws enemy troops into shock!

Pluvius

Gem: Sapphire

Wizard of the Lyle Family

Pluvius is the master of the stars. He reaches into the stars to grasp fire and throws fireballs around the enemy. No sorcerer in Ishmeria is mightier than Pluvius!

④ PASTHA

The Pastha is a water dragon. It is peaceful by nature and helps moral rulers who reign with concern for their people. The Pastha approaches a ruler when it feels the time is right to unite the crown. It will go into war as a Fifth Unit and spray the enemy with jets of water. But, after the war is over, the Pastha quietly retreats into the sea.

④ FIRE DRAGON

The Fire Dragon is locked inside of a gem at the top of Gemfire. It was jinxed by the magicians in the days when the evil Wizard Zimmel controlled it with a curse. The ruler who holds the crown can use the Fire Dragon in war.
